CLUB NOTES

Our visitors from South East London will be engaging in their 18th League fixture here at Deepdale this afternoon.

Of the previous seventeen North End emerge victors on eleven occasions, drawing two and losing four times—these defeats occurring in seasons 1929-30, 1937-38, 1948-49, and lastly in 1954-55.

When Charlton Athletic secured promotion from League Three South, they first visited Deepdale on September 7th 1929, and created quite a shock by winning as clearly as the score of 3-0 suggested.

Last here on the final day of season 1961-62, when on April 28th, North End had a comfortable win at the London club's expense. There was no score to disturb the peace of a lovely afternoon until 14 minutes from the end when Dawson scored with a terrific punch. Three minutes later Barber followed suit with a smashing target shot. North End: Kelly; Wilson (R.), Ross; Barber, Singleton, Smith; Wilson (D.), Thompson, Dawson, Spavin, Alston. Charlton Athletic: Duff; Sewell, Hewie; Tocknell, Hinton, Bailey; Lawrie, Matthews, Leary, Edwards, Kinsey.

North End will doubtless be noting that despite a lean season, something certainly stirred in The Valley last Saturday, when Charlton drubbed promotion aspirants Plymouth Argyle by 6-3.

"Down at the Valley"

The Charlton Football Club was founded in amateur circles in 1905, and during World War One closed down—emerging as Gnome Athletic, to become Charlton Athletic and so joining the ranks of the old Southern League in 1920 as a professional club with headquarters at the Valley.

When the Football League Division Three South was launched in 1921-22 Charlton were duly elected, spent one season at Catford, but soon returned to the Valley. In 1923 they created a soccer sensation of sorts as F.A. Cup giant-killers by disposing of Manchester City, North End and West Bromwich Albion in successive rounds. In 1926 they were seeking re-election to League Three South, whence followed promotion to Division Two in 1929, relegated in 1933, the prelude to a notable record of promotion unequalled in League history—Champions of League Three South in 1935, promoted to Division One in 1936, and actually runners-up in their first season in senior company with 54 points, three points behind champions Manchester City.

Charlton Athletic were last relegated in 1957. Twice F.A. Cup finalists in successive seasons 1945-46 and 1946-47, winning the trophy by that memorable Duffy goal in the second of those two Finals—Burnley being the defeated contender for the coveted trophy.
